BIG FRENCH PROJECT.

ATLANTIC SQUADRON TO MAKE
WORLD TOUR.

MARSHALLS, July 3.

Admiral Gilly, when he assumes command of the Atlantic flying squadron, will proceed on a nine months' cruise of the world visiting Port Said, Djibouti, Tamatavi, Reunion, Australia, New Zealand, New Caledonia, Japan, China, Indo-China, Singapore, Calcutta, Bombay, Alexandria and Suez. The Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Commerce, the Colonies and Public Works and the principal French Chamber of Commerce will be represented on both vessels as the mission will also be of a military, economic, commercial, colonial and industrial character.

THE DUBLIN BATTLES.

NATIONAL TROOPS SUCCEEDED.

LONDON, July 3.

In the Dublin battle yesterday national troops captured a number of rebel strongholds. There are now nearly four hundred irregulars taken prisoner. The rebels were driven out of eight positions. One of the most important successes was the capture of Moran's Hotel where thirty irregulars were taken prisoner. Three eighteen pounder shells were fired at the Hotel whereafter the rebels rushed across the street into the Hotel opposite where they hoisted a white flag and surrendered. The casualties are not thought to be serious. The rebels' position in Moran's Hotel commanded important artery communications to Sackville Street. National troops invested practically the whole of this area all day long. A lengthy engagement preceded the surrender of the rebels which took place in the morning in the Hotel which consisted principally of intense machine-gun firing.

SAVE SAINT PAUL'S.

AN APPEAL TO CHURCHMEN.

LONDON, July 3.

An appeal to churchmen throughout the world to contribute a £100,000 to preserve St. Paul's from the serious danger of decay is made in the Times by the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's.

They state that though the work of strengthening one arch upholding the great dome is nearing completion much remains to be done if the cathedral is to be prevented from falling into decay. The architects and engineers take such a serious view that it is feared that it would be necessary to close the cathedral to enable the work to be pushed on.

TWO WOMEN CLAIM BODY.

WIDOW WAIVES HER RIGHT TO BURY HUSBAND.

Two women at Hackney, E., recently claimed the body of Harry Samuel Shields, 64, undertaker's coachman, of Walthamstow, on whom an inquest was held.

It was stated that Shields had been separated from his wife, who gave an address at Islington. Since then for seven years he had lived with a Mrs. Pollett, who took his name and was regarded as his wife.

After Mrs. Pollett had given evidence Mrs. Shields said that she wanted her marriage certificate handed over.

Mrs. Pollett said the certificate was at her house, but she had only found it since the death of Shields.

Dr. Edwin Smith, the coroner, Mrs. Shields is entitled to it.

Mrs. Pollett: She is welcome to it. But I should like to take possession of the body for burial.

Dr. Smith: Here again the legal right rests with the one who was actually his wife.

Mrs. Pollett: The law would not allow me to marry, but we have lived and were regarded as man and wife for 7 years, and he was not only kind to me but was also a good father.

Dr. Smith: I quite believe you. You stick to each other faithfully and do not will that the work of you for that. As the same time I am afraid you have no legal claim to his body.

Mrs. Shields: As the law has been good and in fact kind to him, I will give her the authority and possession of the body.

Mrs. Pollett: Thank you very much. Mr. Smith: You had better call it a day.

THE GLOOMY DEAN.

APPEAL TO NOVELISTS.

VULGAR AND INDECENT FICTION.

Dean Inge makes an appeal in the Evening Standard to the novelists of the day.

"At the present time, when the country is suffering severely from the moral as well as from the material effects of the war, it is surely the duty of all writers who have the ear of the public to use their influence on the side of purifying our social life," he says.

"There never was a time when there was a more urgent necessity to direct the minds of the public to all things that are true and noble and just and pure and lovely and of good report."

"We are threatened with an outbreak of licentiousness like that which followed the Civil War in the seventeenth century, and the Republic was a hundred years ago a pure and elevated land, in popular literature would do much to diminish the evil and bring it to a happy end."

It was Dean Inge who said that every Englishman had reason to thank God for the purity of his country.

Will you, my fellow novelists, writers, remember that your art is a privilege, a responsibility, a duty, and that you are called upon to use it for the good of the nation.

Mrs. Shields: As the law has been good and in fact kind to him, I will give her the authority and possession of the body.

Mrs. Pollett: Thank you very much. Mr. Smith: You had better call it a day.

Mrs. Pollett: Thank you very much. Mr. Smith: You had better call it a day.

Mrs. Pollett: Thank you very much. Mr. Smith: You had better call it a day.

THE DUBLIN WAR.

A MELANCHOLY SABBATH.

SNIPERS BUSY.

LONDON, July 2.

Heavy rain and the absence of people and traffic and jamming cars from the streets conspired to render Dublin's Sunday most melancholy. Snipers were everywhere, busy firing on armoured cars and ambulances. A big gun against the Irregulars is momentarily expected as the efforts of Lord Mayor O'Neill and Cardinal Byrne to avert the disastrous consequences of an attack in Sackville Street failed. Meantime there have been frequent bursts of machine-gun fire against the fortified area within which are DeValera, Cathal Brugha, Oscar Traynor, reputedly head of the Dublin Brigade, Madam Mearns and about five hundred insurgents. The only notable incident last night was the National's capture of the Corporation workshops with its garrison after half an hour's engagement. The National forces report a few successes in the country where the Irregulars are leaving a trail of burning barracks and are reported to be consoling the countryfolk.

RAILWAY STRIKE.

MORE AMERICAN LABOUR TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, July 2.

It is estimated that 90 per cent. of 400,000 railway shopmen have responded to the order to strike, but the train service is still unaffected owing to the non-participation of the trainmen. The shopmen's postal union has been declared vacant and willing workers have been promised protection.

AVIATION.

MAJOR BLAKE AT CORFU.

ATHENS, July 2.

Major Blake, the aviator, has arrived at Corfu.

AMERICAN MINING DISPUTE.

GOVERNMENT ACTION FORESHADOWED.

WASHINGTON, July 2.

President Harding at the mining conferences, which have been divided into bituminous and anthracite sections, foreshadowed Government action if the disputants do not settle their differences.

CORRESPONDENCE

AN EX-COLONEL'S VIEWS.

(To the Editor of the China Mail.)

Dear Sir,—I confess that after reading the letters from 'Had Some' and 'Had Enough' I am still in the dark as to their objection to military service. The chief reason put forward is that drills, inspections and clean-up equipment are unintellectual occupations. Now my dear Sir, any General or Colonel will tell you that you cannot have too much of what has been described as 'Spit and Polish' in the Army. It is its very life-blood. Without it, there would be absolutely nothing for the officer to find fault with, nothing for the men to do wrong.

I served in the Army during the War and I must say that I revelled in Spit and Polish. My battalion had the square-topped, the brightest buttons, the most nearly folded ground-sheets and closest-fitting tunics of any unit in France. My regimental canteen though unfortunately seldom stocked with articles of food, was invariably replete with Blanco, Brasso and Boot Polish. All my men wore their hair three-sixteenths of an inch long, called their N.C.O.'s 'Sir' and ate their starchy food with their hands. In short, no smarter unit could be found.

When the Brigadier was coming to inspect the battalion at midday, I ordered reveille at 4.30 a.m. and breakfast for the men at 6 o'clock. They had to be washed, shaved and properly dressed at a quarter past and paraded in sections at 6.30. Platoon fell in at 7 o'clock, and the officers conducted a minute inspection until 8.30. At 9 o'clock they fell in by companies and the company commanders' inspection had to be over by ten. Punctually to the very tick of that hour, the buglers summoned the company markers to take up their allotted positions and by 10.30 they were in line. This enabled the whole battalion to be on parade at 11 o'clock by which time I had finished breakfast and donned my spurs. I made a point of ordering my charger to be ready at 7 a.m. (to encourage discipline) and by 11.15 I rode on to the parade ground with the band played 'Captain Ginger.' The Major and myself then made a close inspection of every man's chin, pouch fasteners and trouser buttons and by 12 o'clock everything was ready for the Brigadier's arrival.

Grumble at the start if you like. Call it Red Tape, Eyewash or anything you care to. Be you must admit that a smarter piece of work could not be conceived. This is the system under which our Army has thrived. It gives the men plenty to do, while it supplies a thousand and one things for the junior officers to supervise. It raises the Colonel's position to one of great responsibility. Finally, it enables the Staff Officers to gaze upon a really pretty sight. Yes, Sir, you cannot have too much Spit and Polish in the Army. The more, the better!

Yours faithfully

Ex-Colonel.

ON DANCING IN WARM WEATHER.

(To the Editor of the "China Mail.")

Sir,—An observation made to me last Tuesday evening by a new visitor to Kowloon Theatre, so far as dance nights are concerned, has given me to think. He said, at the end of the evening, "I could not have believed it possible for the Theatre to have been kept so cool, or for dancing to be so pleasant in this hot weather." I have thoroughly enjoyed myself. Now, Sir, I feel that it is certainly the case with many of the people of this Colony that they are missing, in the summer, a great pleasure and relaxation because they think they will not be comfortable whereas, as a fact, they may be perfectly happy dancing, given the proper conditions. I am dancing regularly myself and I know.

Take Tinian, here they dance right through the summer and those who have visited the northern part in June-July-August know that the temperature of Hongkong, particularly after sunset, is not a circumstance to that in the same season in Tinian. It may be retorted in Tinian the folk dance in the open air. (I know—I've done it myself in July). But in the case of our own Theatre, we claim that the conditions are better than in the open air, where there is often no breeze at all, what with the heat of the sun and the large numbers of people provided with the large fans, and don't you think that the conditions are better than in the open air? I am, Sir, a firm believer in the fact that the conditions are better than in the open air, and I am dancing regularly myself and I know.

SEAMEN'S UNION IN SHANGHAI.

BRANCH NOW FORMED.

Shanghai papers discuss the formation of the Shanghai Seamen's Union. The programme was as follows:—

1 Music; 2 Formal opening of the meeting; 3 Bowling three times to the Chinese flag; 4 Introduction of officers to the guests; 5 Music; 6 Addresses by guests; 7 Official reply to the address; 8 Music; 9 Address by members; 10 Music; 11 Thanks giving address; 12 Refreshments; 13 Taking of a photograph.

They understand that the Shanghai branch is growing with surprising rapidity, and already there is said to be a large number of members.

An invitation has been received from the International Seamen's Union asking China to send delegates to their conference which will be held this year, at a place to be decided upon. Two or three delegates will be selected.

The constitution, translated, is as follows:—

1.—The name of this organization shall be the Chinese Seamen's Union, Shanghai Branch.

2.—The aim of the Union will be to bring about co-operation and mutual friendship between the seamen of China, and shall attempt to better the conditions of seamen, morally and intellectually.

3.—The head office of the Union will be at 187 Des Vaux Road Central, Hongkong.

4.—The office of Shanghai branch shall be established for the present at 163 Broadway.

5.—Membership shall be open to all Chinese seamen, provided that applicants for membership be introduced by some present member of members of the Union.

6.—An entrance fee of one dollar shall be paid by each member.

7.—The yearly membership fee shall be $1.20.

8.—The officers of the Union shall be a president, a vice-president, a chairman, a manager, and a treasurer who shall give voluntary service. These shall serve for one year, but they shall be eligible for re-election at the expiration of their terms.

9.—Meetings shall be held once a month, and a mass meeting shall be held once a year.

10.—Upon the establishment of this branch, there will be established with the funds at the disposal of the union a night school for labourers and a hospital, etc.

11.—Should any member of the union die, the sum of $50 to be raised among the members shall be granted to his family.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE MAGAZINE.

"CHINA MAIL" PRIZE AWARDED.

About six months ago, sympathizing with the appeals of the editor of the Yellow Dragon for more literary support from Q.C. students, interested in schoolboy essays, and desirous of seeing this particular magazine improved, we offered a prize for the best original contribution that might appear in the following three months. There was practically no response. There was no marked increase of contributions, and some of what did go in was, we were told, written by masters. Not wanting to award a prize to a master, naturally, and being at a loss for material to judge, we asked the Yellow Dragon editor to award the prize. He said he would rather we did it, and suggested that we extend the period to cover one or two subsequent numbers. Now that the June number has appeared, we do not care to wait longer. After carefully considering the various contributions in the magazine appearing since our offer was made, their authors, of course, being unknown to us, we award the prize to "K.W.L." for the "Thimble Sketches" of masters, appearing in the last number. If this boy will communicate his name and address to the Editor of the China Mail, the prize will be forwarded to him.

"THE FOURTH."

LOCAL CELEBRATIONS PLANNED.

As one of the features of the Fourth of July celebration by the American community and preliminary to the reception to be held in the Hongkong Hotel to-morrow afternoon, a baseball game will be played between teams made up of the married men on one side and the single men on the other. Game will be called at 10 a.m. to-morrow and the Committee extends a cordial invitation to everyone in the Colony to witness the game. A lively competition has developed between the two teams and a very hard-fought game is anticipated. Special arrangements for accommodating the crowd have been made in the commodious "stand" and "lady" "lans" are especially welcome. Following is the line up of the two teams in batting order:—

Married Men—Church 3B, Dome 3B, Bradford 1B, Br. wa. P. Scott C, Epstein 1B, Yardley 2B, Feltz 1B, Gunn CF.

Single Men—Proulx 2B, Nelson 3B, Koch C, Townsend 1B, O'Connor CF, Benson LF, Downick SS, Daugherty RF, Curtis P.

T. P. O'CONNOR AND DEAN INGE.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor saw Dean Inge at the Royal Literary Fund Dinner the other night, and this describes him in the Sunday Times:

"The strong, broad, with its fierce black hair, the square chin, the robust and square frame, gave me the impression of a 'bonnie feller' rather than an inactive and demurest. His speech was full of out-of-the-way learning from all sorts of readings—a little like a page from Burton's History of Malay and there were scattered here and there biting, epigrams. But the voice, though powerful, is not quite good for oratorical purposes; it is—so to speak—muffled, and the delivery is a little too cold and monotonous. On the whole, I should sum up my impression both of the delivery and of the matter of the speech as 'staccato'."

A UNIQUE ETON RECORD.
 "By the retirement of Mr. William Sidney V. Evans from the post of drawing master at Eton an extraordinary connection is snapped.
 From father to son four generations,
 beginning with Samuel Evans in 1796, have unbrokenly held this position," says the Daily Mail. "The first of the family was drawing master for 27 years, the second for 31 years, the third for 40 years, and the fourth for 19 years. We doubt whether such a record of continuous service could be equalled elsewhere." It does honour both to the Evans family and to Eton College.

"The continuity of things in England, a continuity that changes but does not break, is one of the great sources of England's strength.
 And fortunately it is a spirit which is deeply embedded in the English character. The story of the Evans family is, in a sense, a typical page of English social history."

HONGKONG TIDES.
 The tide-table given below has been compiled at the National Alms House in London from the results of the surveys of observations taken by means of an automatic tide-recording machine in the Water Police Basin at Tsim Sha Tsui
 during the years 1933-4.

The zero of the table corresponds with the zero of the sounding in the Admiralty Chart which has been found to be 4 feet higher than mean sea-level.

To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 3 feet 4 inches, and on the gauge at Leamont Dock, Aberdeen, add 10 feet
 4 inches to the heights given in the table.

"WHITE MAN'S PRESTIGE" SHOCK FOR ENGINEER.

"SHE KNOCKED ME ABOUT ALL OVER THE PLACE"

Before Mr. R. E. Lindell this morning, T. M. Poole, an unemployed engineer was charged with noisy and disorderly behaviour calculated to create a breach of the peace in Jew Street, Wanchai, and causing damage to a door at No. 14, Yuewah Street.

Defendant pleaded not guilty.
 Acting Sub-Inspector Shafrin, of
 No. 1, Police Station, said that about 4.40 yesterday afternoon the defendant came to the station and complained that he had been assaulted by a woman at No. 14, Yuewah Street. The witness advised him to take out a summons in the morning and defendant went away quite quietly. About an hour later the witness received a message from No.
 14, Yuewah Street that a European was causing a disturbance there. He went to the house and found the defendant on the first floor landing. A lady pointed out a broken panel on the door and told the witness that the defendant had smashed it.

Defendant, I was not disorderly.
 I went to the house to look for another woman and this lady knocked me about all over the place. I was just recovering my senses when the Inspector arrived.

Mrs. Mary Jane Donnelly said that about a month ago the defendant came to her house and asked for something to eat, saying that he had had no food for three days. She gave him a bottle of Sarsaparilla. Yesterday afternoon when she returned home from shopping she saw a crowd of about 200 Chinese outside her house, and on the 1st of July landing she met the defendant.

When she spoke to him he threw a blow at her and called her names.
 She blew a police whistle and the defendant tried to escape. She caught him by the collar and brought him back to her house.

Defendant said that he was a European and that he was a member of the Chinese community.
